

CIVIL APPELLATE SELF-HELP WORKSHOP

Are you a party to a civil case on appeal? The appellate court is very different from the superior court -- including its processes and procedures. We encourage you to attend a FREE workshop to learn important information about what is required at the Court of Appeal, especially if you are not represented by an attorney.

A Civil Appellate Self-Help Workshop will be held at the San Diego Law Library on the third Tuesday of each month.

Join us at one of our workshops this year:

January 16
April 17
July 17
October 16

February 20
May 15
August 21
November 20

March 20
June 19
September 18
December 18

3:45 p.m. – 6:00 p.m.
San Diego Law Library
1105 Front Street
San Diego, CA 92101

Seating is limited. To pre-register, call (619) 471-2781 and leave a message.

At the workshop:

We can:

- Tell you about appellate procedures and rules
- Explain unfamiliar words
- Tell you about sources of information
- Provide you with helpful hints on how to fill out forms and comply with the court's rules and procedures

We cannot:

- Handle your appeal
- Act as your lawyer
- Give you legal advice

The Civil Appellate Self-Help Workshop is a joint project of the California Court of Appeal, Fourth Appellate District, Division One; the Legal Aid Society of San Diego, Inc.; the San Diego County Bar Association's Appellate Practice Section; and the San Diego Law Library
