

Marian Gaston Bio

Juvenile Delinquency Division, Assistant Supervisor
Office of the Primary Public Defender

Marian Gaston graduated from Boalt Hall in 1996 and immediately began work for the San Diego County Primary Public Defender. She has worked for her office's downtown misdemeanor and felony teams, the Sexually Violent Predator Unit, and she is now the assistant supervisor of the Delinquency Division. She has served as a representative on the county's Sex Offender Management Council and is a past chair of the local chapter of the California Coalition on Sexual Offending.
